Article III of the bylaws of the Sandra & Leon Levine Jewish Community Center, Inc.
states:

Section 3. Nominating Committee: At a regular meeting of the Board of Directors, at least sixty (60) days preceding the annual election, the President shall appoint, then publicize and post a Nominating Committee of five (5) members to nominate the officers of the Community Center for the coming year and to nominate persons for election to the Board of Directors. This Committee shall consist of three (3) members of the Board of Directors, including the officers, provided that only Board members whose terms of office do not expire at the annual election may serve, and two (2) additional members of the membership of the Community Center. As soon as practicable after the President appoints the Nominating Committee, the President shall cause to be publicized the names of the Nominating Committee in order to afford the membership an opportunity to make recommendations.
