Demystifying the College Admissions Process
February 21st • 2:00–5:15pm • Levine Jewish Community Center

SEMINAR TOPICS
How Colleges Make Admissions Decisions
How to Choose between the ACT and SAT
Determining Your Best Fit Colleges
Preparing Your College Application: Freshman through Senior Year
The Newly Redesigned SAT
Writing Your Strongest College Essay
Landing a Merit Scholarship
Need-Based Financial Aid
Developing a Professional Resume and Interview Skills
Advice from H.S. Seniors about Applying to College
Dissecting Every Part of the College Application

SPEAKERS
(see their bios at: www.collegeadmissions101.org/speaker-bios)

Kevin Abplanalp (President of Future Prep Educational Services), Rachel Brand (Counselor at Central Cabarrus High School), Debbie Burch (Owner of College and Career Advisors), Brian Culbreth (Associate Vice President, Southeast, at Princeton Review), Craig Fulton (Former Director of Admissions at UNC Charlotte and Director of Financial Aid at Guilford College), Lisa Ledbetter (Director of Financial Aid at Rowan-Cabarrus Community College), Christy Majors (AVP for Student Financial Services at Queens University), Dezireé Martin (Counselor at Central Cabarrus High School), Ellen Martin (Principal at College Admissions 101), Jenny Peacock (Director of College Counseling, Raleigh, at Collegewise), and Costas Solomou (Dean of Admissions at Queens University)

INCENTIVE PRICING through January 31st: $60 per person -or- $120 for up to 4 FAMILY members
(After January 31st: $70 per person and $140 per FAMILY)

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!
Call the Levine Jewish Community Center: 704.366.5007