Basketball Training for Individual, Small Group, and Teams.

TITUS IVORY:

Titus Ivory brings over 30 years of experience in coaching, training, and mentoring student-athletes to the city of Charlotte and the surrounding area. Coach Ivory has coached and trained athletes on the recreational, high school, collegiate, and professional levels. Charlotte native and graduate of North Mecklenburg High School, Ivory played basketball collegiately at Penn State University, after a standout high school career in basketball, football, and track and field. At Penn State, Ivory earned All-Big Ten and Defensive Player of the Year Honors. During the 2001 NCAA Tournament, Ivory scored 21 points against fifth-ranked University of North Carolina, helping Penn State to the Sweet 16 for the first time in 45 years.

After college, Ivory played basketball professionally overseas for 11 years, during which he won two European Championships and one National Cup Championship. Upon retirement of his playing career, Ivory entered coaching at the high school level. He is currently an educator in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School District and works with the Queen's University Men's Basketball team.

Ivory and his wife Nicole live in Charlotte with their four children, Talia, Titus, Nia, and Norrie.
