Website Resources for Teachers

The Anti-Defamation League \(ADL\), founded in 1913, “fights anti-Semitism and all forms of bigotry and protects civil rights for all.” ADL produces a variety of teacher resources including comprehensive curriculum guides and lesson plans for all grades.

Echoes and Reflections Provides educators with the professional development and resources necessary to develop the knowledge, capacity, and practice required to responsibly and effectively teach the Holocaust.

IWitness Testimonies, activities and digital resources. Free registration for educators.

Teaching Tolerance A clearinghouse of information about anti-bias programs and activities being implemented in schools across the country.

Queens University Greenspon Center for Peace and Social Justice A community resource for Holocaust and human rights education and for collaboration on social justice issues. The center provides physical and online resources with the most up-to-date curricular and research materials.

The Center for Holocaust, Genocide and Human Rights Education of North Carolina (Holocaust Speakers Bureau) assists local educators and organizations with teaching the challenging topics of the Holocaust, genocide, tolerance and human rights. The Center works with teachers, schools and organizations to develop age-appropriate materials and presentations.

The North Carolina Council on the Holocaust, an agency of the N.C. Department of Public Instruction, provides teacher workshops and educational resources across the state.

Holocaust Educators Network Offers a 12-day summer seminar for faculty from middle schools, high schools, colleges and universities interested in furthering their knowledge about the Holocaust and other genocides.
